PRESCOTT, May 26, 1882. Whereas, It is proposed by the citizens of Colorado to hold a mining exposition in the city of Denver, to be opened in August; 1882; and

Whereas, An invitation has been extended to the people of Arizona to participate in the same, and present for exhibition specimens of their various minerals, mining machinery, etc., and

Whereas, The Excecutive has reason to believe that the several railroads passing through Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado, will transport all ores free of charge to said Denver, and

Whereas, It is most especially important that arrangements be perfected looking to Arizona's proper representation.

Therefore, I hereby request that the citizens of the several mining districts throughtout the Territory, hold a meetin on or before June 16, for the purpose of selecting a suitable person who shall be commissioned by the Executive of the Territory to make a full collection of ores of his district, ascertain the assay valuand character of the same, prepare suitable cases in which the same may be placed in the department set aside for Arizona, and ship to the nearest point on the railroad, to be taken and transported to Denver The representative appointed to be present at the exposition to take charge of the mining district he represents. The Executive will also appoint one commissioner, whose duty it shall be to secure suitable accomodations from the proper authorities controling the exposition, and to allot to each representative from the Territory his proper space, and to generally super-vise and report upon the conduct of our

To REMOVE DANDRUFF, -This is natural secretion, but becomes a cutane-ous complaint by neglect. Take an ounce of powd red borax, a piece of unalacked lime the size of a chestnut, and a table-spoonful of spirits of ammonia; put them in a quart bottle, and monia; put them in a quart bottle, and fill it up with boiled or pump water. After twelve hours apply this wash to the scalp. Ladies can apply it best with a small sponge. Rinse with tepid water. After a few applications the scales will disappear, the har becomes soft and brilliant, and the young har will be seen to start out Dandau.

will be seen to start cut. Dandruit should be cured gradually, so as not to produce sick headsche or dizziness by its sudden suppression. THE excessive mortality of infantwithin the first year has been lately dis-cussed among medical men in Paris. M. Bouchardat contends that the great mass of the misk sold in Paris does not fulfil-the conditions indispensable to aliments tion of infants; that it does not digest like mother's milk, but produces disr rhea, which is the chief cause of the ex cossive mortality. He considers that ef-fort should be made to secure maternal suckling (except in very rare ca-e-) M. Jules Guerin, while agreeing as to the prevalence of infantile diarrhea, considers that more attention should be paid to adaptation of cow's milk, and, in artificial lactation, to the digestive power-of the child. He had often observed that infants fed with good cow's milk had diarrhes, because the milk was to strong or given in too great quantity. BATHING CRILDREN, -Some mother think when their children get beyond two or three years of age the frequent entire bath can be dispensed with. I some of the main facts of physiology were well known and understood every one would perceive that cleanliness of the skin is one of the conditions of good health. It happens when bathing is dis-regarded that the lungs, kidneys or bowels have more than their own apportion ment of work. If they are strong and healthy they may bear the tax without apparent ill, but, in most cases, a lower ing of the vitality and tone of the sys-tem ensues. Large bath tubs are con-venient and pleasant, but not indispens able for proper cleaning of the skin. A speedy sponging of the body in pur-water, followed by friction in pure air, is all that is necessary. When disin-clined to use wat r a thorough applica-tion of the flesh brush to the whole person is an excellent substitute; especially on retiring, it relieves nervousness, equalizes the circulation, and induces quict sleep. Mothers, above all, should see that their children are well bathed. If their skins are kept active and healthy there will not be half the danger from HENRY SCHOSHUSE. WM. HARVEY. fever, colds and cruptions. If your little one is cross and troublesome, and find-no occupation that pleases him, try the effects of a bath; sometimes it is magical, and if tired he will go to sleep and awake bright, cheerful and happy. Do not, as some people do, plunge a child in cold water when he screams and shrinks from it, thinking you are doing a good deed. Nature must be the guide. If your child has a nervous constitutio shock of this kind is only exhausting and injurious.

How to secure health

It is strange any one will suffer from habit, Dysomania derangements brought on by impure blood, when scovill'ssarsaprilla and stillingia or BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will restore health to the physical organization. It is a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and the BEST BIOOD PURIFIER ever dis-covered curing scrofula, syphilitic disorders, weakness of the kidneys, erysipelas, malaria; nervous disorders, debility, bilious complaints and diseases of the blood, liver, kidneys, stomach, skin, etc.
Dr DeWitt C. Kellinger's limiment is an infallble cure for rheumatism, sprains, ameness, and diseases of the scalp, and or promoting the growth of the hair.

. Rescued from Death.

William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. William Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I got a bottle, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past.

'I write this hoping every one afflicted with diseased lungs will take Dr. WILLIAM HALL'L BALSAM, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness.
